Erland constructed this new bank branch with remote ATM teller as one of the first buildings in the 3rd Ave development. Features include a 24/7 business center, offices, break room and restrooms. The open interior design does not have any partitions between the customer and the teller.

This steel-framed structure uses the latest in building envelope design -- a layered rain screen that moves the insulating and waterproofing layers to the outside. This delivers higher insulating efficiency and water vapor management.

Cambridge Savings Bank is among the largest community banks in Massachusetts and provides a full complement of banking services to personal, small business, and commercial customers.
